Making A Difference ~
One Stitch At A Time

Who We Are

Each story has a beginning . . . and each beginning has a storyteller.

The story for Piecemaker Quilters began in 1997 when the founder, Kay Putnam, organized the quilting ministry at the First Baptist Church of Mount Dora. Kay's gifts and talents for making quilts coupled with her dedication to show God's love to people who needed quilts led to the growing number of quilters who continue the quilting ministry today.

Currently, Piecemakers Quilters, under the leadership of Jan Allen and Peggy Smith, has grown to a quilting ministry which includes quilters from sister churches in Lake County. It is through quilting that we have built friendships and have learned something new from each and every one.

Hundreds of beautifully crafted quilts have been sent to local, state and international organizations throughout the world to include Ukraine, Haiti, Cuba, Venezuela, Honduras, Brazil, Native Americans in North Dakota and Arizona, Lake County Linus Project and Mount Dora Habitat for Humanity.

Tribute to Jami Blemker

Piecemakers Quilters became aware of the Wounded Warrior program, a noble program for military service members who have been wounded while serving in the Armed Forces.

Through the passion and leadership of Jami Blemker, the quilters ministry wholeheartedly embraced a project to create quilts using red, white and blue colors and patriotic themes to give to the wounded veterans in military hospitals.

Jami traveled to Fort Gordon, Georgia with the first quilts to present to each warrior. Quilts and pillowcases were presented to the service member.

The following year, Jan Allen and Peggy Smith, took more quilts. When they returned, they shared reports of how much the service members appreciated receiving handmade quilts with an attached note of encouragement.

We give tribute and appreciation to Jami for her vision to create quilts and patriotic pillowcases for the men and women who serve and have served in the Armed Forces and to families of the Fallen who have given the ultimate sacrifice.
